Public Discussion Before the Chamber of Commerce.

MR. MUNFORD'S ADDRESS.

A Masterly Exposition of the Financial Affairs of Richmond.

HOW BEST TO PROTECT OUR CREDIT.

tures of the City Must Be Brought Within the Receipts - Full Text of the Speech.

ness Mr. Munford set forth the present tention throughout, and was frequently solid and helpful advice to those present who have a part in the administration of the city's finances.

MANY BUSINESS MEN PRESENT. The meeting was held in the Assembly

Manufacturers, bankers, real estate, and favorable conditions. This was one of the most important places for this enterprise. Though outside influence had somewhat limited the tobacco manufactures here, the conditions were still strongly favorable to this branch of interprise the description of the conditions of the condi

Chamber of Commerce should be en-ournged and pushed forward by the business men, and every effort made to encourage the co-operation of business interprise and thrift with technical edu-ful practical presentation of the subject, and was full of valuable information and wholesome advice. It was not only intersting to the business men present, but I gave them food for reflection:

MR. R. H. POWER'S VIEWS.

Stop Crying Hard Times, Which is Mor-Imaginary Than Real.

cannot expect merchants to come to chmond to buy their stocks. They will to the market where all of their wants a be supplied. Then, toc. we must have table places of amusement to enter-in them when they visit the city. The

